FOOD LAW'S WEAK POINTS

Claimed that Regulations Would Hurt American Manufacturers.

The pure food regulations submitted to Secretaries Wilson, Shaw, and Metcalf Gerry, do not meet with entire approval. It is probable that some of the regulations will have to be modified considerably be-fore they will be adopted by the secretarles. Under the regulations as they stand now there are several which would no doubt cause much dissatisfaction among manufacturers in this country. No American wine could be labeled champagne, although many can stand the which have foreign names simply After awhile, Stefano suggested that that name belongs to a recognized grade
